Any other comments about your routine or your home:

I hereby authorize Au Purr L.L.C. to make any emergency decisions necessary on behalf of the above-named companion animals or other animals added to my household at a later date, and accept financial responsibility for any veterinary bills associated with their care. I understand and authorize Au Purr to secure the services of another veterinarian should an emergency occur after-hours, or should my veterinarian not be available. Au Purr is authorized to provide transportation for my animals, if needed. I have provided all relevant information about care, feeding, medications, etc. in the "Companion Animal History".

No travel time is billed, except in the case that the animals require transport. I will remit fees due within one week of receipt of an invoice. Credit cards are not accepted.

Nina Yost is the primary point of contact. Other members of the Au Purr team may provide care, either as employees or sub-contractors. Nina will provide training to each pet-sitter affiliated with Au Purr, along with written detailed instructions. Guidance will be available by phone for any questions or situations that may arise during any visits.

Au Purr will receive and act on any phone messages or email received during office hours (please refer to web site for current hours). Messages or email received outside of those hours will wait until the next office hours for action. Please note that even if Au Purr does receive a cancellation in time to avoid the visit, fees may still apply.

Clients returning from out of town are an exception to the office hour rules, and do need to call Au Purr upon returning home. Failing any word, Au Purr will, as always, assume the animals listed above are still under the company's care due to travel delays, and will continue visits until otherwise notified.

I understand that text messaging is not available to Au Purr, and that the methods of communication are email (preferred) and phone.

Signed,

"Owner"
